Are you a baseball fan? Are you getting excited for the new season to start and for the Twins to christen their new stadium? On April 8, Hall of Famer and Minnesota Twins legend Harmon Killebrew will be speaking at the Church of St. Peter, 1801 W. Broadway, St. Peter. Come join us as he illuminates some of the high points of Minnesota sports history. He will be available for a Q & A session and for autograph signing after his talk.

On May 4, award-winning National Geographic photographer and author Annie Griffiths Belt, a Minnesota native, will entertain anyone interested in photography, bridging cultural divides, conservation, nature, and America's virgin lands. She will be sharing her stories at South Central College in North Mankato.

Finally, Jeannette Walls, columnist and author of the memoir The Glass Castle and the "true life novel" Half Broken Horses will be speaking at Martin Luther College in New Ulm on June 10. Her gripping memoir of an impoverished and unconventional childhood spent the better part of two years on the New York Times Bestseller list.

All of these events will take place from 7:00 to 9:00 PM. They are free and open to the public and made possible by the vote of the people of Minnesota on November 4, 2008 which dedicated funding to preserve Minnesota's arts and cultural heritage. Seating at some of the venues is limited, and is available on a first-come, first-served basis.
